

GLOBAL SUMMIT XVI

Oct. 17 through Nov. 15, 2024

PRESENTED BY:
JEFFERSON
EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY

*Schedule and speakers subject to change

An Evening with Liz Cheney and Sister Joan Chittister

Thursday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 PM

About Liz Cheney:

Liz Cheney served as U.S. Representative for Wyoming's congressional district from 2017 to 2023 where she chaired the House Republican Conference from 2019 to 2021 and served as the Vice Chair on the Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol. Liz Cheney is the author of the newly released memoir, Oath and Honor.

About Sr. Joan Chittister:

For over 50 years, Sister Joan Chittister has passionately advocated on behalf of peace, human rights, women's issues, and monastic and church revival. She is one of the most influential religious and social leaders of our time.

Moderated by:
Sr. Joan Chittister

The Future of Sports

Sunday, Oct. 20 at 7:30 PM

About Stephen A Smith:

Stephen A. Smith, is a featured commentator and executive producer on ESPN's First Take weekdays, an analyst on NBA Countdown, and host of NBA in Stephen A's World. In 2023, Smith debuted his New York Times Best Selling memoir "Straight Shooter; A Memoir of Second Chances and First Takes," In 2022, Smith launched K[no]w Mercy with Stephen A. Smith, bringing the biggest stories from the worlds of politics, entertainment, social issues, business, and more, regularly joined by a wide range of notable guests and thought leaders.

An Evening with Heather Cox Richardson and Tom Nichols

Tuesday, October 29 at 7:30 PM

About Heather Cox Richardson:

Heather Cox Richardson is Professor of History at Boston College. She has written about the Civil War, Reconstruction, the Gilded Age, and the American West in award-winning books whose subjects stretch from the European settlement of the North American continent to the history of the Republican Party through the Trump administration. She is the author, most recently, of the best-selling Democracy Awakening: Notes on the State of America. Jane Mayer has called the book “a vibrant, and essential history of America’s unending, enraging and utterly compelling struggle since its founding to live up to its own best ideals.” Heather Richardson’s work has appeared in the Washington Post, the New York Times, and The Guardian, among other outlets. Her nightly newsletter, Letters from an American, reaches over a million readers.

An Evening with Heather Cox Richardson and Tom Nichols

Tuesday, October 29 at 7:30 PM

About Tom Nichols:

Tom Nichols is a staff writer at The Atlantic and an author of the Atlantic Daily newsletter. He is a professor emeritus of national-security affairs at the U.S. Naval War College, where he taught for 25 years, and an instructor at the Harvard Extension School. He has served as a legislative aide in the Massachusetts House and the U.S. Senate. He writes about international security, nuclear weapons, Russia, and the challenges to democracy in the United States and around the world—along with occasional contrarian views on popular culture. His books include The Death of Expertise and Our Own Worst Enemy: The Assault From Within on Modern Democracy. He is also a five-time undefeated Jeopardy champion.

Gannon Reads: Lara Schwartz

Wednesday, October 30 at 7:30 PM

About Lara Schwartz:

Lara Schwartz is a professor in the School of Public Affairs at American University, where she is the founding director of the Project on Civic Dialogue. Schwartz, a lawyer and former civil rights strategist, is also the author of Try to Love the Questions, which aims to create a framework where educators and students alike can comprehend and engage with discussions pertaining to civil discourse, effectively setting up college communities to navigate the intersection between free speech and inclusion.

In Partnership with:

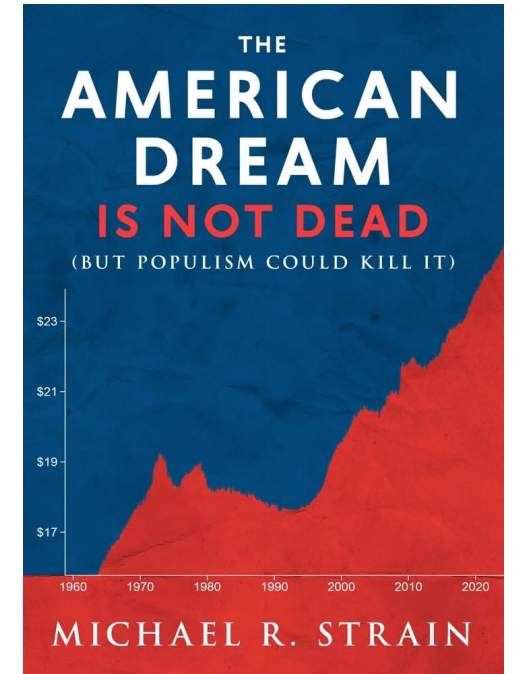

The American Dream is Not Dead (But Populism Could Kill It)

Monday, Nov. 4 at 7:30 PM

About Michael Strain:

Dr. Michael Strain is the Director of Economic Policy Studies and the Arthur F. Burns Scholar in Politic Economy and at the American Enterprise Institute (AEI).

His research and writing span a wide range of areas, including labor markets, public finance, social policy, and macroeconomics. He has published several dozen articles in leading academic and policy journals. Dr. Strain is also the author of The American Dream Is Not Dead: (But Populism Could Kill It) (Templeton Press, 2020), in which he examines long-term trends in economic outcomes for typical workers and households.

The Generous Leader: 7 Ways to Give of Yourself For Everyone's Gain

Wednesday, November 6 at 7:30 PM

About Joe Davis:

Joe is a Managing Director and Senior Partner at Boston Consulting Group. In The Generous Leader, Joe shares a performance review: He was told he was not the best at problem-solving solo; but with others, he could solve any challenge. His manager identified his key strength - a person who could connect.

Joe has been with BCG for over 35 years, co-founded the Washington DC office, led office systems, started BCG's NA Public Sector business, led BCG North America. He is Chair of BCG's Center for Inclusion and Equity.

Superabundance: The Story of Population Growth, Innovation, and Human Flourishing on an Infinitely Bountiful Planet

Date: Thursday, Nov. 7

About the Marian L. Tupy:

Marian L. Tupy is the founder and editor of HumanProgress.org, and a senior fellow at the Cato Institute's Center for Global Liberty and Prosperity.

He is the coauthor of the Simon Abundance Index, Superabundance: The Story of Population Growth, Innovation, and Human Flourishing on an Infinitely Bountiful Planet (2022) and Ten Global Trends Every Smart Person Should Know: And Many Others You Will Find Interesting (2020).

Leading a Diverse Workforce Today and Tomorrow A Panel Discussion featuring high ranking officials from the FAA, Aerospace Corp., and More

Monday, November 11 at 7:30 PM

About Maj. General Ed Bolton:

Edward (Ed) L. Bolton, Jr., is the 2023 recipient of the Thomas B. Hagen Dignitas Award. Bolton is a retired United States Air Force Major General. Since June of 2020, he has served as the senior advisor to the Aerospace Corporation CEO and his Corporate Officer team. Bolton previously served at the Aerospace Corporation as Senior Vice President of the Defense Systems Group. He retired from Aerospace in March 2019. Immediately after his military career, he worked at the Federal Aviation Administration where he was the Assistant Administrator responsible for leading the modernization of the National Airspace System—the world’s largest and most complex aviation system.

Lincoln and the Un-Civil War on Immigration

Tuesday, November 12 at 7:30 PM

About Harold Holzer:

Harold Holzer is the Jonathan F. Fanton Director of The Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute at Hunter College in New York, a post he assumed in 2015 after 23 years as Senior Vice President of The Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Holzer is the author, co-author, or editor of 56 books on Lincoln and the Civil War. His Lincoln and the Power of the Press won the 2015 Gilder Lehrman Lincoln Prize, as well as awards from the Harvard Kennedy School and the Columbia School of Journalism. His latest book is Brought Forth on this Continent: Abraham Lincoln and American Immigration (February 2024).

We Are the Leaders We Have Been

Looking For

Friday, November 15 at 7:30 PM

About Eddie Glaude, Jr:

One of the nation's most prominent scholars, Dr. Eddie Glaude, Jr. is an author, political commentator, public intellectual and passionate educator who examines the complex dynamics of the American experience. His writings, including Democracy in Black: How Race Still Enslaves the American Soul, In a Shade of Blue: Pragmatism and the Politics of Black America, the New York Times bestseller, Begin Again: James Baldwin's America and Its Urgent Lessons for our Own, and most recently We Are the Leaders We Have Been Looking For, takes a wide look at Black communities, the difficulties of race in the United States and the challenges we face as a democracy. Glaude is the James S. McDonnell Distinguished University Professor and the former Chair of the Department of African American Studies at Princeton University from 2009 to 2023. He frequently appears in the media, as a columnist for TIME Magazine and as an MSNBC contributor on programs like Morning Joe and Deadline Whitehouse with Nicolle Wallace.

Post-Election Media Panel featuring D.C. Insiders Led by Steve Scully, host of 'The Briefing' on SiriusXM

Date: TBD

About the event:

Global Summit Chairman and host of “The Briefing” on SiriusXM, Steve Scully returns once again to his hometown for the JES’s Global Summit. Scully, who has interviewed every U.S. President since Ford, will lead a panel discussion of today’s politicians in the wake of the 2024 Presidential Election.

From Erie to the Hall of Fame: Life, Legacy of Fred Biletnikoff – the 2024 Recipient of the Thomas B. Hagen Dignitas Award

Date: TBD

About Fred Biletnikoff:

Born in Erie, Pennsylvania, in 1943, Frederick “Fred” Biletnikoff, nicknamed "Scarecrow", is a former football player and coach. He played as a wide receiver for the Oakland Raiders in the American Football League (AFL) and National Football League (NFL) for 14 seasons and later was an assistant coach with the team. He retired as an NFL player after the 1978 season, and then played one additional season in the Canadian Football League (CFL) for the Montreal Alouettes in 1980. While he lacked the breakaway speed to be a deep-play threat, Biletnikoff was one of the most sure-handed and consistent receivers of his day, with a propensity for making spectacular catches. He was also known for running smooth, precise pass routes. He is a member of both the Pro Football Hall of Fame (1988) and College Football Hall of Fame (1991).

LECOM HEALTH

2023 Sponsors

Bruce and Sarah McWilliams

